A STRESS, TRAUMA, AND RESILIENCE SEMINAR
PRESENTED BY THE DIVISION OF POPULATION BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

SAVORING US
PROMOTING LASTING CONNECTIONS IN PARENT-CHILD DYADS

Jessica Borelli, PhD

WEDNESDAY, MAY 2, 2018 | 9:00AM - 10:00AM
CONFERENCE ROOM A7-418
Semel Institute for Neuroscience and Human Behavior | 760 Westwood Plaza

SEMINAR OBJECTIVES:

1. Describe the importance of reflective functioning and parenting sensitivity in promoting children's socioemotional adjustment
2. Discuss the main components of relational savoring
3. Identify the main outcomes of relational savoring
4. Describe ways to integrate relational savoring into clinical practice with at-risk families

Coming May 16
Scott Hunter, MD
Adolescent Substance Use and Misuse: Early Intervention and Risk Reduction

https://nfrc.ucla.edu/star-seminar