Dr. Jagsi’s presentation will discuss the scope of gender inequities in academic medicine and provide education on how to recognize and address sexual harassment. With more than 200 articles to her credit, Dr. Jagsi’s work includes multiple publications in the New England Journal of Medicine and JAMA. Funding through independent grants from the National Institutes of Health (NIH) and numerous philanthropic foundations support her research in this area. Dr. Jagsi frequently speaks as an invited lecturer on this subject, having delivered keynote addresses at dozens of institutions, specialty and leadership societies, and the NIH.

Monday, October 28th 4:40-5pm Reception followed by lecture at 5pm
NRB Auditorium (note room change to accommodate RSVP received)
Click here to view map to NRB. 635 Charles E. Young Drive South, Los Angeles, CA 90095

DGSOM Deans Office
Equity and Diversity Inclusion
gsomedi@mednet.ucla.edu
310-825-2253

Learn more about the Cultural North Star