This study will see if a CMV vaccine can reduce inflammation in people living with HIV.
CMV infection is common in people living with HIV and often silent, but causes chronic inflammation. This study is testing an investigational vaccine that targets CMV called Triplex®.

For more information, please contact the UCLA study team:
(310) 843-2015 or CAREOUTREACH@mednet.ucla.edu*

*BThere are limits to the confidentiality of email communications. Do not include any sensitive health information if you choose to contact the study team via email.

BASIC ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:
- Age 18-65 years old
- Living with HIV and positive for CMV (study will do the test for CMV)
- On continuous HIV treatment for at least 48 weeks
- CD4 count > 250